CONDOLENCES

Over the winter break Mr. Reed lost his brother. Mr. Reed will return on campus on Wednesday January 6. Also, unexpectedly, beloved Spanish teacher Mr. Parsons passed away. Mrs. Cochran described him best as "such a gentle person and so professional. I still can't believe he's gone... One of our last year's graduate, who is now at Bethune Cookman, came to the office the day SGA put up the banner in guidance and she couldn't stop talking about Mr. Parsons, a teacher that she said influenced her the most in her decisions for the future." Our thoughts and best wishes goes out to everyone in their time of grief.

BUSINESS/CTE

On December 10, the Taste of South was hosted by the Business and CTE department in the Magnet Building. At the event, the attendees learned how current and future students at South could obtain FREE $$$$ to attend college, how to apply for financial aid, how to earn industry certifications, and become "job- ready." Immense thanks to the Guidance and athletic department for also helping to make the event possible. Special thanks to Mrs' McNeile and Desmarais and Mr' Holt and Junco who were not pictured in the highlights of the event. We are also very appreciative of the time and effort of the presenters from the Art Institute and Le Cordon Bleu.

DECA leadership presenting at Taste of South on some of the benefits of club participation

ATHLETICS

Taste of South included presentations on some of the benefits of being in winter sports like Track and Field.

GUIDANCE

Mrs. Pierre-Jullot, Guidance Counselor, presenting at Taste of South on the benefits of Dual Enrollment.

BUSINESS PARTNERS

Le Cordon Bleu instructor Mellissa McCartney sharing some of the options for students who attend their program.

Mrs. Julie Kasper, BRACE Adviser, discussing options for earning money for educational pursuits after high school.

STUDENT LIFE

Chris Flangan presenting highlights of the culinary program that are offered at Art Institutes at the Taste of South event in December.

Above are some of the students showcasing the culinary program at South during the Taste of South.

SCIENCE

First cucumber of the season that was grown by Mrs. Brown and her students. Take a few moments to tour their gardens and you get lucky to sample this delicious treat.

WORLD LANGUAGES

The Coffeehouse Try-Outs 2016. These will be taking place on 1/11 & 1/12 in room 242. The upcoming Coffeehouse will be held on 1/28 at 6:30 p.m. in the magnet theater. The Coffeehouse celebrates the art of the spoken word, poetry, and song! It is also a fundraiser for the Sword & Shield newspaper.
